

Award winning children's authors coming to Finchley Church End library!

On Saturday 13 May 9.30 – 11.30am, author Natasha Farrant will be talking about her latest book, 'The Rescue of Ravenwood'. Natasha won the Costa Children's book award 2020 for 'Voyage of the Sparrowhawk'. There will be an opportunity to ask Natasha questions and she will be signing books after the event. If you already have one of Natasha's books, bring it along! If not, copies of 'The Rescue of Ravenwood' will be available to buy. Age guidance 8 – 12 years.

Book your space

On Sunday 14 May 9.30am – 11.30am, Carnegie Medal winning author Tanya Landman, will be talking to Miriam Halahmy about her latest books, 'The Battle of Cable Street' and 'Lightning Strike'. Miriam is the author of 'Saving Hanno' which tells the story of nine-year-old Rudi who leaves the dangers of Nazi Germany on a Kindertransport to England. Age guidance 9+, teens and adults.

Book your space

Thanks to our sponsor and eBook provider Libby, all our Literary Festival tickets are FREE.

